

Hosted by the New Zealand chapter of

Transport & Health

THSG
Science Group

Hybrid event
(in person and online)

The Congestion Conversation Symposium 2026

Tuesday, 24 February 2025 | 2:30 pm to 4:30 pm (New Zealand time; UTC+12)
Auckland, New Zealand

Join us to learn from and network with researchers and practitioners from various sectors and discuss congestion charging in New Zealand.

Symposium Programme

- 2:30 pm Welcome and introductions
- 2:40 pm Dr Hyesop Shin, University of Auckland, Auckland:
“Deciphering Congestion Pricing: A Geosimulation Perspective”
- 3:00 pm Chris Ballantyne, New Zealand Transport Agency:
“NZTA’s Role in Supporting Scheme Development”
- 3:30 pm Panel Discussion:
“Congestion Charging in New Zealand: Challenges and Opportunities”
Panellists:
Michael Roth, Auckland Council
Josh Arbury, New Zealand Transport Agency
Dr Mihn Kieu, University of Auckland
- 4:10 pm General discussion
- 4:30 pm Symposium ends

Registration is free,
but mandatory.

Register here

Limited capacity for in-person attendance.

Room 303-148
38 Princes St
Auckland Central

Online participants:
MS Teams link details will be sent to registered online participants prior to the symposium

For questions about this event, send an email to Dr Sandra Mandic, PhD, PMP, THSG NZ Co-Chair (Policy) at agile.research.nz@gmail.com.